

Bwthyn Bach - BOOKING FORM

BOOKING CONDITIONS

Bookings are made by Christine Robinson (hereinafter called "The Agency") on behalf of the owner. A contract for the letting is made between the holiday-maker and the owner on the issue of a confirmation of booking by The Agency. The Agency has the right to refuse any booking. In the event of a cancellation the Agency will make every effort to re-book the property but the holiday-maker is liable to pay the full cost if this is not possible. Where an owner is unable to honour a booking the Agency will make every effort to offer a suitable alternative property. If this is not possible, a full refund of all money paid will be made. The Agency shall not be liable for further compensation.

Payment of a deposit and/or submission of a booking form is deemed to be acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Agency.

Insurance. Once your holiday has been confirmed you are legally liable for the full balance payment. It is recommended that you should take out some form of insurance. Insurance that covers you and members of your party for death, accident and illness as well as redundancy and occupational posting. There will be an application form enclosed with your deposit receipt for such an insurance, but we are not allowed to recommend any particular policy. It is the responsibility of the customer to pay the balance or to ensure that, in the event of cancellation, a claim form is completed and sent to the insurers.

Bookings are for holiday purposes only and cannot give rise to a tenancy. Once confirmation of a booking has been sent we are unable to accept alterations to dates or property chosen without incurring additional costs of £25, which will be charged at the time of confirmation of the new booking.

Transfers cannot be made within 8 weeks of holiday date. Letting hours are from 4.00 pm on the day of arrival until 10.00 am on the day of departure, except for short breaks which may be altered by prior arrangement with the owner of the property. Properties must be left in a clean and tidy condition with storage heaters, where supplied, left on and fully charged. Some owners may require a cleaning / damage deposit. Details will be given with travel information. Agreement and settlement will be between the owner and holiday-maker. Fuel supplements, where applicable, are payable to the Agency, in full, with the balance payment. The number of people occupying a property may not exceed the numbers stated in the brochure. Where pets are welcomed, it is on the condition that they are not allowed on the furniture and are never left in the property unattended. Some owners will require a refundable deposit. Where there is evidence that these conditions have not been adhered to, future bookings may be refused. Occasionally things can go wrong. If there is a problem, in the first instance visitors should contact the owner or custodian of the property. If they are unable to help, please contact the Agency immediately. Regrettably it is not possible to consider complaints once a property has been vacated. The Agency and the property owners are not liable for any unexpected or unusual circumstances which are outside their control, such as severe weather conditions, failure of public utilities, fire, flood, drought, acts of riot, etc. which may lead to facilities offered in this brochure becoming unavailable for all or part of a booking. All the listed properties are privately owned and are let for self-catering holidays by the Agency on behalf of the owners. Every care has been taken in preparing the description of each property. There may, however, be slight variations incurred since the particulars were printed, the Agency cannot be held responsible if, on arrival, the property does not meet your expectations.
